Procedure to File a Federal Rights Civil Rights Complaint

Division of Food and Nutrition

Procedure for Filing a Civil Rights Complaint:

1. All staff members are required to inform the Lunch Program Coordinator and/or the Director of Operations immediately when a person (a parent/guardian) states that they want to file a Civil Rights Complaint.

2. Once informed, the Food Service Coordinator and/or the Director of Operations (Food Service Manager) must meet with the complainant to receive the complaint. If the complaint is verbal, the complainant will be directed to follow the steps in the complaint process (see below). Sponsor receives a Civil Rights complaint from the complainant (i.e. parent).

A) The complaining party will be informed that Federal Civil Rights rules and regulations that have been established for protected classes. (A protected class is any person or group of people who are protected from discrimination based on): Race, Color, National Origin, Age, Sex, Disability.

B) The complainant will be provided the necessary information to file a complaint, which is:

1. Mailing address of the USDA:
U.S. Department of Agriculture
Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights
1400 Independence Avenue, SW
Washington, D.C. 20250-9410;
2. USDA's Telephone/Fax numbers and Email address:
(866) 632-9992 / (202) 690-7442 F/ program.intake@usda.gov
3. Electronic link to file a civil rights complaint: http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html

Note: If the sponsor is unsure if the complaint falls under a protected class, sponsor should provide complainant the federal complaint information.

C) After providing the complainant with the information on how to file a Civil Rights complaint directly at the Federal level, we will attempt to resolve the complaint if it is a matter that can be resolved quickly. Resolving complaints in real-time at the lowest possible level is encouraged. (Note: This is not an investigation as neither the sponsor nor the State agency has the authority to conduct complaint investigations. This is simply trying to resolve the situation if it was potentially caused by a miscommunication.)

If the complainant refuses to discuss the matter any further with the Program Coordinator or if the matter cannot be resolved quickly, then the sponsor should:

1. reiterate the complaint filing procedures above,
2. document the complaint and actions taken (i.e. referral to Federal complaint procedures) in a Civil Rights complaint log that is separate from any other complaint log, (Note: A separate Civil Rights complaint log is necessary due to confidentiality and privacy laws. See complaint log requirements in d) below.), and
3. Notify the State agency of the discussion. (Note: it is important for the sponsor to notify the State agency because regular communication between the sponsor and State agency is key to operating the program successfully.)

If the complainant is willing to try to resolve the issue with the Lincoln and a satisfactory resolution is achieved, then the sponsor should still remind the complainant (using the information in 1)b)) of his/her right to file at the Federal level if necessary. (Note: Complainants retain the right to file at the Federal level even if a resolution seems to have been reached at the school level.) WE need to document the complaint and actions taken (i.e. how resolution was achieved) in a log that is separate from any other complaint log, and notify the State agency of the resolution.

D) Regardless if the complainant wishes to file at the Federal level, the sponsor should document as much information as possible in their Civil Rights complaint log including, but not limited to, the following:

- Date Complaint Received
- Complainant's Name
- Complainant's Address
- Complainant's Telephone Number
- Complainant's Email Address
- Allegation of Discrimination/Issue (i.e. FNS program involved, protected class(es) involved, etc.)
